DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: The preamble recites, "A method for detecting diamonds dislodging from the CMP machine dresser", however "the CMP machine dresser" lacks antecedent. The examiner suggests changing "the" to "a". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
4. Claim 8 recites the limitation "the chemical mechanical polishing machine" in the 4th line. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
5. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as failing to set forth the subject matter which applicant(s) regard as their invention. Claims 7, 8, and 10-12 are drawn to a method; however, claim 9 is drawn to an apparatus that depends from a method claim. It is unclear from the claim language, what the applicant intends as the subject matter with respect to the invention.

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11

Art Unit: 3723

F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claims 7-12 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 5-10 of U.S. Patent No. 6,852,004 B2. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because narrower patented claims include the broader method steps of the pending claims, thus rendering the broader limitations, as a whole, as being obvious in view of the patented claims.
